Dedication

MRS. NORMAN JOHNSON

MR. ARTHUR P. SILVESTER

We, the graduating class of 1952, proudly dedicate our yearbook to MRS. NORMAN JOHNSON, our class advisor for three years, and to MR. ARTHUR SILVESTER, our principal. Their willing co-operation and perseverance have meant a great deal to us throughout our high school years.

President's Address

The time has come when we, the class of 1952, must set our right foot forward to see whether we are capable of taking our place in society.

For four years we have worked and played side by side with our classmates. Those days are over. Now, with hope in our hearts, we must go out into the world alone.

The world today is a troubled place; but we go forth with determination and confidence, knowing that our high school days have done much to prepare us for this great step forward and hoping that with God's help we will be able to make this world a better place in which to live.

To Mr. Silvester, to the members of the faculty, to our parents and friends we extend our appreciation for the efforts they have made in our behalf and the help they have given us all along the way.

LOUIS LERTOLA

Class Song

(Tune of "Look for the Silver Lining")

We are leaving our Alma Mater,
Our Alma Mater, dear Proctor High;
Another world is now ours to conquer,
But we will laud her glories to the sky,
And with a heart full of joy and sadness
We now will bid our fondest goodbye;
But when our dreams need a silver lining,
We'll all remember dear old Proctor High.

LILLIAN KING

CLASS MOTTO: "Act Well Your Part; There All The Honor Lies."

CLASS COLORS: Blue and White

CLASS FLOWER: White Rose

Farewell!

Oh, glorious future,
We see you through tears;
Yet the smiles on our faces
Betray all our fears.

As we leave Proctor High
We find sorrow our cloak;
Yet with joyous excitement
A new world we invoke.

But, happy or sad,
We've learned lessons so dear.
Honesty, loyalty, and friendship
Go with us from here.

Class History

FRESHMAN YEAR

In September, 1948, twenty-two young, green students, entered Proctor High School, feeling rich and cocky, with over seventy-five dollars in their bank account.

At our first class meeting we chose John Bresnehan our president, Rosalie Colburn vice president, Faith Champine secretary, and Lillian King treasurer.

We found Miss Gay in the mathematics department, Coach Brokaw in boys' physical education, Miss Kemp in girls' physical education, Miss Hackett, English, Mrs. Johnson in the commercial department, and Miss Erway, music. Miss Towne was teaching English; Mr. Williams, history; Mr. O'Horo, manual training; Mrs. Fontaine, languages; and Miss Shanney, home economics. Our principal was Mr. Parry.

With Miss Gay as our sponsor we became known as a very thrifty class with new ideas.

After living through the Freshman Reception (Luckily they'd forbidden a great deal that year!), we started to make money, but not too successfully. We had a King and Queen Dance, food sales, and a few Saturday night dances.

We had our representatives, Louis Lertola and Albert Vigneau, out for football and Robert Johnson, Albert Vigneau, and Louis Lertola out for basketball and baseball.

We were proud, too, when Lillian King made the cheerleading squad. Lillian also went to the Music Festival in Burlington. Elinor Johnson and Louis Lertola were on Student Council. Marie Macek made first string on the Girls' Basketball team.

After basketball came the junior one-act plays. We presented "Billy's First Date" with Marie Macek, John Bresnehan, Louis Lertola, Lillian King, Elinor Johnson, Ellen Bowman, Joan L'Herault and Albert Vigneau in the cast. We won second prize. Thomas Geno directed the play.

We attended the Roman Banquet for the Latin classes.

We ended our first school year with a bang-up picnic at Lake St. Catherine.

* SOPHOMORE YEAR

The loss of one student, Shirley Hanson, who got married, left our class with only twenty-one students as we entered our second year. We now had $117.79 in our class pocket and we were still money-wise (Some upper-classmen said that we were wise, period.).

We again elected John Bresnehan president, Ellen Bowman vice president, Therese Kallio secretary, and Janet Navari treasurer.

We had only three changes in faculty: Mr. Silvester became principal; Mrs. Ploof, home economics instructor; and Miss Guidotti, music instructor.

Again with Miss Gay as our sponsor we undertook the following activities: Sophomore Hop, food sales, Harvest Moon Dance, a skit for Hallowe'en which won us ten dollars, and the Sadie Hawkins Dance which we held in the town hall.

We started the idea of football and basketball programs, an idea which proved very successful. I think we enjoyed getting the ads more than anything. We sold candy at the football games.

Louis Lertola and Albert Vigneau were on the football squad again, with Bobby Johnson joining them on the basketball and baseball teams. Our basketball team won the Marble Valley League and went to the "C" Tournament in Burlington.

The sophomore play was "Candy Goes on a Diet" with John Bresnehan, Christine Hinds, Marie Macek, Louis Lertola, Lillian King and Albert Vigneau in the cast. Marilyn Duprey and Sheila Fay were directors. Again we won second prize.

The Roman Banquet was again held at the Sutherland Club, and we were the hosts.

Elinor Johnson and Louis Lertola were on the Student Council; Lillian King was again in the all-state orchestra at the Music Festival in Burlington.

For the first time a prize speaking contest was held under the sponsorship of the Woman's Club. Marie Macek, Joan L'Herault, and Lillian King represented our class. Lillian King won second prize.

Again we finished the year off with a successful picnic at Lake St. Catherine.

JUNIOR YEAR

Oh, yes, our class was dwindling to almost nothing; for this year we were left with only sixteen. Arlond Tanner left for the Army; Faith Champine and Doris Yorke became engaged; Christine Hinds moved back to Rutland; while John Bresnehan transferred to M.S.J.

Our class officers were: president, Elinor Johnson; vice president, Louis Lertola; secretary, Jean Fregosi; and Marie Giancola, treasurer, as she was noted for her integrity. Miss Gay, who became Mrs. Norman Johnson, went further toward making the high school into Johnson, Johnson and Johnson, Incorporated.

Proctor High School lost one of its best friends this year. Mr. Call went to Morrisville to teach. To replace him came Mr. Rogerson. Coach Wells replaced Coach Brokaw who was called back into the Army, and Miss Dewing took over Miss Kemp's position in the physical education department. In October a teacher with many years of long and faithful service to the young people of Proctor, Miss Marion Hackett, was forced to retire because of illness. Mrs. Fontaine took over her duties in English; while Mr. Lepore, and later, Mrs. Murphy, taught Latin and English.

"Money, money" was our cry; and in our visions danced, not sugar plums, but gold and silver. The presentation of the junior one-act plays was one of our biggest projects. Our class presented "A New School for Wives."

In the cast were: Louis Lertola, Lillian King, Marie Macek, Ann Curtis, Jean Fregosi, Elinor Johnson, Albert Vigneau, and Rosalie Colburn. This great comedy, directed by Mrs. Norman Johnson, won first prize. Another new idea was a hayride, which was a big success for the "lovers" of P.H.S. Again we made basketball programs, which netted approximately three hundred dollars.

The members of our class were rapidly turning into politicians. Louis Lertola was elected vice president of the Student Council, and Elinor Johnson and Lillian King were class representatives. In June Elinor Johnson was chosen to represent the Student Council at the National Student Council Convention in Wellesley, Massachusetts. Elinor had the honor of leading a discussion group.

Albert Vigneau, Robert Johnson, and Louis Lertola, the three boys in our class, gave us one hundred per cent on the baseball squad. Not every class can boast such a percentage. There was no football season, but Bob and Louis played basketball. In February we went to the Class "C" tournament. We won the first game but were defeated by Barton, the class "C" champs, in our second game. We were proud that Joan L'Herault was chosen "C" Tourney Queen.

The girls' softball team wasn't very successful; but fun was had by the girls: Jean Fregosi, Joan L'Herault, Mary Jane McCullough, Ann Curtis and Marie Macek. Elinor Johnson was our efficient manager. Joan L'Herault and Marie Macek made the varsity cheerleading squad and Jean Fregosi became a J.V. cheerleader. Ann Curtis, Jean Fregosi, Mary Jane McCullough and Therese Kallio were on the Varsity basketball team; and again Elinor Johnson was the manager.

Joan L'Herault and Lillian King went out for prize speaking, and Joan tied for third place. Elinor and Lillian went to the Music Festival in Burlington.

Marie Macek was chosen to go to the Model General Assembly of the United Nations held in Plymouth, New Hampshire. She represented Canada.

As the year was drawing to a close, Elinor Johnson and Marie Macek were chosen delegates to Girls' State; and Robert Johnson and Louis Lertola, to Boys' State.

We looked forward to entering our senior year with the largest capital of all the classes in Proctor High. We thought this was the end of our busiest year, but we were to find out we had never been so busy as we were going to be in the future.

SENIOR YEAR

The great year had arrived! In our first class meeting as seniors we elected Louis Lertola president, Jean Fregosi vice president, Marie Macek secretary, and Marie Giancola treasurer. Mrs. Norman Johnson and Mrs. Fontaine were chosen co-sponsors.

When Mrs. Johnson left for Germany to be with her husband, we gave her a Bon Voyage Party at Elinor Johnson's home. Mrs. Frank Johnson from Rutland substituted until the school could find a new math teacher. He came in the form of Mr. Loyzelle. Mrs. MacPherson was now teaching music, and Miss Parkhurst handled girls' gym.

Guy Loso left us to join the Navy. We were now fifteen pupils "trying" to graduate.

Our first big undertaking was the senior play, "Men Are Like Streetcars." The cast included all the girls except Ellen Bowman and Marie Giancola and all the boys except Robert Johnson, who was manager, and included also two junior boys, George Loso and Thomas Mohan, and one sophomore, Joseph Cizmadia, whom we had to "borrow." (And a successful loan it was!) The play was a smash hit! Mrs. Fontaine was the director.

Louis Lertola was elected president of the Student Council; and Elinor Johnson and Marie Macek, senior members. These went to Burlington in April for a state student council convention, at which Marie Macek led a panel discussion.

Elinor Johnson was chosen D. A. R. girl; and Marie Macek, queen of the "C" Tourney, which was held in Barre again this year. Louis Lertola, our star center, made the all-tourney team. We lost our second game to Stowe who went on to win the championship.

During basketball season we were very busy selling refreshments at the home games. We also sold Christmas cards and later Proctor banners.

Baseball started right after basketball, and the boys looked very chic in their new uniforms.

Rosalie Colburn left us to get married and move to New Jersey.

The District One-Act Play Contest was again held in Proctor. Marie Macek, Lillian King, Elinor Johnson, Joan L'Herault, George Loso, Thomas Mohan, Anne Dynan, and Ann Curtis were in the cast of "The Neighbors." This comedy, directed by Mrs. Fontaine, won first place in the district.

At the assembly before spring vacation it was announced that Jean Fregosi was valedictorian and Elinor Johnson, salutatorian.

Prize speaking was sponsored again by the Woman's Club. Marie Macek, Joan L'Herault, and Lillian King all participated; and Joan won second prize.

Only a few hours after prize speaking contest, at the amazing hour of quarter to two in the morning, eleven seniors and two chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. Fontaine, left for the long and eagerly awaited senior trip to New York and Washington. In spite of missing bus wheels, suitcases, and pocketbooks we all enjoyed such events as tours of Washington and Mount Vernon, a "splash" party, the Broadway hit musical, "Call Me Madam," a yacht cruise, a big league baseball game, a class banquet at a night club, and the Easter show at Radio City Music Hall. We returned happy but exhausted.

Right after our class trip Lillian King, Mary Jane McCullough, Therese Kallio, Elinor Johnson, Ann Curtis, and Janet Navari went up to Burlington for the music festival.

We have arrived today at the end of four hectic but happy years. We shall look back upon these years many times in the future and remember with wistful pleasure the good times and many friends to whom we now say, "Auf Wieder-sehn."

MARIE MACEK,
JEAN FREGOSI.

Class Degrees

- LOUIS LERTOLA—Louis has been active in all phases of high school life. His having been student council president and class president, as well as the key-man in sports, wins him the degree of C.A.-A., Class All-American.
- LILLIAN KING—Lil's interests lie in a certain fraternity at Middlebury College; so she receives the degree of C.K.D.R.Q., Class Kappa Delta Rho Queen.
- JOAN L'HERAULT—The dreamy look in her big brown eyes wins Joan the degree of C.D., Class Dreamer.
- ANN CURTIS—Ann's appetite has made her famous throughout the school. Her love of food wins her the degree of C.R.R., Class Refrigerator Raider.
- JEAN FREGOSI—Jean always has a cheerful smile and a ready bit of humor. Jean receives the degree of C.C.G., Class Carefree Gal.
- ROSALIE COLBURN—A former classmate who chose married life rather than school receives the degree of C.D., Class Deserter.
- ELLEN BOWMAN—Since good things always come in small packages, we proudly present Ellen with the title C.P.P., Class Prize Package.
- THERESE KALLIO—Therese is always chasing—not rainbows but handsome members of the opposite sex. Therese receives the degree C.M.C., Class Male Charmer.
- ELINOR JOHNSON—Whenever anything needs attention, we call on Elinor and know she will help us do it well; so we dub her C.H.H., Class Helping Hand.
- MARY JANE McCULLOUGH—Because of her very sweet singing voice and also her love of night life—particularly in Pittsford, we award Mary Jane the degree C.N., Class Nightingale.
- ALBERT VIGNEAU—As Zibby is always so well dressed, he earns the degree of Z.Z., Zippy Zibby.
- MARIE GIANCOLA—It has been said that silence is golden. Marie's silent manner wins her the degree of C.G.G., Class Golden Girl.
- JANET NAVARI—Jan is always seen at the Proctor Pharmacy—behind the counter. She receives the degree of C.S.J., Class Soda Jerker.
- MARIE MACEK—We know that Marie would be successful on a debating team. Her love of argument wins her the degree of C.D., Class Debator.
- ROBERT JOHNSON—Bobby has never been interested in girls—until recently that is. His interest in one particular girl earns him the degree C.P.O.M.H., Class Peg O' My Heart.

ELINOR JOHNSON,
ANN CURTIS.

Advice To Juniors

- LEO LAFRANCE—We suggest that you use a jet propelled basketball. That way it may be able to go as fast as you do.
- RODNEY SEDERGREN—If you study hard, we know you'll always have a "Pat" answer to any question.
- CHARLES DANKANICS—Because of your great voice, Charles, we suggest that you practice crying. Then you may become the future Johnny Ray.
- FRANK BROWN—Keep on with your acting, Frank. Broadway always needs fresh talent.
- FRANCES ALLARD—Why not buy a megaphone and gallop up and down the corridors, yelling through it? Then we'll know when you're around.
- ALBERT MATSSON—Albert has such a long walk that he is often missing from school. We advise him to buy a car so he'll never be absent from class.
- ROGER MAY—Why not contribute the sports ability that you now devote to hunting to Proctor High athletics?
- PATRICIA HORVATH—Stay on the cheerleading squad. Then you'll be all "Set" to go with the basketball team.
- PETER HORVATH—Study physics as hard next year as you did chemistry this year, and you may one day be known as the Einstein of Proctor High.
- THOMAS MOHAN—Because we know how much you like to sleep, we suggest that you buy a repeating alarm clock, to go off every few seconds—in class and on the basketball court as well.
- GEORGE LOSO—We suggest that George build a tramway on Powers Hill. It will save a great deal of shoe leather.
- HILARY HYDE—We have heard that some of the Chicago schools are overcrowded; so when you are in Illinois next week, we suggest that you bring back not only student council knowledge but also some high school boys.
- BETTY PETERSON—You ought to learn to like some other color besides Navy blue.
- IRENE PETRULENICZ—We suggest that Irene eat nothing but corn pone and Southern fried chicken; then she'll have an accent ready for the next play.
- CAROLYN SKJETNE—We advise Carolyn to buy a ladder so she can be the tallest, not the shortest, girl in her class.
- CARL STEELE—We think Buddy ought to get a job on the C and P for the summer so as to get in condition. For football? No, for the hard work of being a senior.

LOUIS LERTOLA,
ELLEN BOWMAN,
JANET NAVARI.

Class Will

State of Vermont
County of Rutland
Village of Proctor

Faculty and Students:

We, the Class of 1952 of Proctor High School, Proctor, Vermont, do on this eleventh day of June, 1952, revoke all wills and testamentary dispositions heretofore made by us, and do declare this to be our last will and testament.

So we bequeath and devise the following:

ELINOR JOHNSON leaves to David Stevens her ability in chemistry.

JANET NAVARI—Janet bestows her love of a certain house on South Street to Donald Perkins.

ELLEN BOWMAN—To Nancy Parker, Ellen Bowman leaves her gift of wiggling through small places. Careful, Nancy!

ANN CURTIS—Ann bequeaths her height to Billy Duprey. Try to live up to it, Billy.

JEAN FREGOSI—Peggy Pockette receives from Jean her carefree nature.

JOAN L'HERAULT—Joanie imparts her driving ability to anyone who likes to live dangerously.

ROBERT JOHNSON—Bob bestows on Charlie Strom his love for romance.

THERESE KALLIO—Therese turns over her typing ability to anyone who feels that careless.

MARIE MACEK—Doris Anderson receives from Marie her cheering ability.

LOUIS LERTOLA—Louis bequeaths to Mike Giancola his athletic ability. Use it well, Mike.

MARIE GIANCOLA—Marie gives to Marilyn Maki her quiet nature. It is really very becoming, Marilyn. Why not try it?

LILLIAN KING—Lillian will confer her love for Middlebury College on no one.—She will take it with her.

MARY JANE McCULLOUGH—Mary turns over to Skeels Thompson her giggling nature. He already does well in this department!

ALBERT VIGNEAU—To "Ice" Mattsson goes Buster's love of Rutland. We hear that Buster did not part with it without a struggle.

ROSALIE COLBURN leaves her acrobatic ability to Anne Dynan.

JOAN L'HERAULT,
THERESE KALLIO.

Class Grumble

Our class has always been so lighthearted and gay that we find it difficult to grumble, but we do have a few suggestions.

Seniors should have forty-eight hour days and ten day weeks in order to do everything that has to be done.

Let's provide rain coats and umbrellas for unexpected showers.

Could we have roofs built over the tennis courts so tennis balls won't be lost so easily.

Mrs. Fontaine would like a combination museum and department store built on the campus. This will eliminate the countless headaches connected with tracking down costumes and properties for plays.

Students should choose their own vacations, not to be over three hundred and sixty-five days long except for leap year when students may take three hundred and sixty-six.

A campus service station should be built to dispense service—free of charge, of course—to student and faculty cars which are either broken down or in need of a wash.

A drinking fountain containing a soda mix should be installed on every desk.

Study hall would be more pleasant and homelike with radios and cushioned contour chairs.

We think the school should purchase magazines similar to Quick, containing condensed stories for use as book reports.

Love Story should be required reading instead of Shakespeare.

The home economics department should serve luncheon to all seniors who get hungry.

Beacuse of all our explosions in chemistry we would like to have our own fire department.

Waitresses and cigarette girls ought to sell the milk at recess.

Let's install a beauty parlor for girls who "can't do a thing" with their hair.

The girls want Gussie Moran tennis suits instead of the gym suits they now wear.

What would you think of snappy little chorus girls to replace the student council president in opening assemblies and television commercials to make the announcements?

These are only a few suggestions. We'll come back for four more years at Proctor High School as soon as they have all been carried out.

ALBERT VIGNEAU,
ROBERT JOHNSON.

Class Prophecy

TIME: 1962
 PLACE: Proctor News Station
 ANNOUNCER: We now present our local news reporters, Marie Giancola and Mary McCullough.

FLASH * * *

HOLLYWOOD, CALIFORNIA—Ellen Bowman, a new Hollywood star, has just received the news that she will play the leading role as "Georgia" in a Bates Production. It'll certainly be a hit, won't it?

BROOKLYN, NEW YORK—It seems that the tree that grew in Brooklyn is well taken care of by Ann Curtis and her tree surgeon friend Loso.

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS—Bobby Johnson has just opened a business called the Landon-Johnson Snack Bar. The business is said to be booming.

WEST RUTLAND, VERMONT—Joan L'Herault, who works as a private secretary at Pet's Studebaker Garage, must have been frightened by the new Studebakers because she ran off with her employer.

SOUTH CAROLINA—Miss Jean Fregosi, president of the University for United States Marines, never has married. Wonder why? We have just discovered that she is too contented with her pupils.

NEW YORK, NEW YORK—We have just heard that Albert Vigneau has been picked best dressed man of 1962. No wonder! The judge was the one and only Miss Mary Roberts.

NEW YORK, NEW YORK—Lillian King, who now writes for the Curtis Publishing Company, enjoys her work very much. She says her boss is very charming.

ALBANY, NEW YORK—We have just received the news that Louis Lertola has become the manager of the Lady Esther Company.

HAWAIIAN ISLANDS—Therese Kallio has just joined the Waves to be near her ever-loving sea captain Jack. We hope she doesn't get seasick.

PITTSFORD, VERMONT—One of your reporter's, Mary McCullough's, favorite flower is the Shamrock, and not too far from here she is taking special care of one.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Elinor Johnson has been on many tours around the world. Her latest tour we hear is accompanying Margaret Truman on the clarinet.

ARIZONA—Marie Macek and her husband Babe have just bought a big ranch in the wide open spaces of Arizona. We are glad to hear of this because we certainly want all their little chicks to have plenty of room.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Marie Giancola has just been appointed Secretary of the Treasury. She got her experience handling class funds during her junior and senior years in high school.

NEW YORK CITY—Rosalie Colburn now has her own television program entitled: "How to have a happy home while running a dancing studio on the side."

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Janet Navari is now private secretary to President Eisenhower. She says that when her eyes "flicker," it's just at the general.

ROSALIE COLBURN,
 MARIE GIANCOLA.

Our "give-away" programs of the last eighteen years have bled

our country of immense quantities of our natural resources and raw materials.

We wonder how these and future like programs will affect the standard of living of future generations.
